Hello East Carbon Seniors,

Finally we are having warm weather, but a rainy afternoon which we need so badly. This month our Book Club has chosen a novel “Hang The Moon” by Jeannette Walls. A young lady named Sallie Kincaid is the daughter of the biggest man in a small town, born in the twentieth into a life of comfort and privilege. Sallie does not remember much of her mother, who died in a violent argument with her father the charismatic Duke Kincaid. When the father remarries and has a son. Sallie tries to teach him to be bold and resourceful just like their father but her coaching leads to an accident. The mother and father cast Sallie out of the Big House and out of town. Will Sallie return at seventeen determined to reclaim her place in a family riddle with secrets? Find out what happens to Sallie. This book is in the local library and may be picked up on line. Grab a beverage and a comfortable chair and find out. It is that time of the year for our annual picnic. This year we are having it at Spring Glen park on June 19th (Thursday) at noon. Bring your favorite dish and enjoy a wonderful afternoon with your friends.

Remember both Centers will be CLOSED on June 16th for Juneteenth.

June 15th is Father’s Day. I am hoping all the fathers will have a wonderful day with your family.

Love you all Seniors,

Brenda

Veterans with a Disability Exemption

Eligibility

This exemption is available to veterans disabled in military service (at least 10 percent disability), their unmarried surviving spouse or minor orphans.

Exemption Amount

The exemption is up to $283,964 of taxable value of a residence, based on the percentage of disability incurred in the line of duty and on the unemployability classification. The exemption can also be applied toward tangible personal property, such as motor vehicles. No exemption is allowed for any disability below 10 percent.

Requirement

An application with proof of military service and proof of disability (or death) must be on file with the county where the eligible property is located.

Active or Reserve Duty Armed Forces Exemption

Eligibility

This exemption is available to active or reserve members of the US Armed Forces on active duty outside the state 200 days in a continuous 365-day period beginning in the prior year.

Exemption Amount

The exemption equals the total taxable value of the claimant's primary residence.

Requirements

To receive the exemption you must:

1. apply on or before September 1 of the year after the year of qualifying service, and
2. include with your application verifying military documentation including orders for qualifying active or reserve service.

You must apply each year you are eligible. Only one exemption is allowed for each period of qualifying service.

Blind Exemption

Eligibility

This exemption is available to legally blind property owners, their unmarried surviving spouse or their minor orphans. There are no income or age requirements.

Exemption Amount

Up to $11,500 of the taxable value of real and tangible personal property is exempt from property tax.

Requirements

File the application by September 1 with your county.

Your first year's application must include an ophthalmologist signed statement.

Indigent Abatement or Deferral

Eligibility

Indigent abatement and deferrals are granted at the discretion of your county's legislative body. To qualify:

1. You are a homeowner or manufactured homeowner.

2. Your home is owner-occupied.
3. You have lived in your home for at least 10 months.
4. Your 2021 income was less than $35,807.
5. You either:

Requirements

File the application by September 1 with proof of ownership, income, disability and/or hardship and other information your county requires. If applying for a deferral, you must also file a clearance statement from the mortgage holder.

All applications must be filed with the county.

Deferral

The county may choose to defer any or all property taxes until property ownership changes. This means the county will continue to assess taxes but they will not need to be paid until the home is sold or ownership changes. There will be no delinquency penalty, but interest will accrue annually.

Appeal Rights

If you feel you have been wrongly denied property tax exemption, abatement, deferral or renter refund, you may appeal to the Utah State Tax Commission. You must file the appeal within 30 days of the denial notification. File your appeal with the county auditor, who will forward your appeal to the Utah State Tax Commission.

Happy June everyone!

I'm so excited for summer. I hope to see you all out at our summer picnic on June 19th at the Spring Glen Park. Please bring a potluck to share if you would like. We will have a great time I'm sure. Please let us know as soon as you can if you need a ride as we might need to borrow some vans from the rec center to get everyone there. If you are on mobile meals please be aware that we will not be delivering meals that day. If you need one please let your driver know and they will bring an extra frozen meal. Also please be aware that the center will be closed on that Thursday as we will all be joining you for the picnic.

I would also like to wish all the dads out there a happy Father's day. We appreciate all you do. Hope you get to celebrate and enjoy your day. Join us here at the center on June 11th for a special Father's day lunch.

Hope you get out and enjoy the nice weather. Summer is too short so soak it all in and have fun.
